Lonnie Klein, Conductor

Dr. Klein is Assistant Professor of Music and Music Director/Conductor of the University Symphony Orchestra.

Dr. Klein received his undergraduate degree in music education from Murray State University, his Master's degree in clarinet and conducting from Michigan State University and his DMA in performance at the University of Illinois.

He has served on the Board of Directors of the Indiana Music Educators Association and is currently the editor of the "Orchestra Opinions" column of the Musicator. He is in frequent demand as a clinician and adjudicator and has made guest conducting appearances with the Evansville Ballet Orchestra, Evansville Chamber Orchestra as well as numerous off-campus performances with the UE Faculty Chamber Players. His teachers include Leon Gregorian, Don Moses and Thomas Wisniewski, and he has been coached under the auspices of the "Conductor's Guild" by Louis Lane, Michael Charry and John Koshak. Dr. Klein is also a member of the Evansville Philharmonic Orchestra.

Joseph Hopkins, Baritone

Joseph Hopkins has performed as soloist at the Sacred Music Festival of Spain, the Festival of Majorca, and the International Choral Festival of Nis, Yugoslavia. His stage experience includes frequent performances with the Dallas Lyric Opera and Artist in Residence at Wildwood Opera Theatre. He has lectured and performed for the National Opera Association and has won numerous competitions throughout the Southeast and Southwest. Mr. Hopkins is a doctoral candidate at Indiana University where he studies with Giorgio Tozzi.

Mr. Hopkins is assistant professor of music at the University of Evansville where he is an active performer in campus and community events. He has directed choirs and operas at Baylor University, McLennan College, the University of Evansville, and church choirs in Georgia, Texas, and Indiana. He is currently director of music at Oakhill Baptist Church in Evansville.

Jeneen Hildwein, Viola

Jeneen Hildwein is a sophomore at the University of Evansville pursuing a Bachelor of Science degree in Music Management. She is principal violist of the University Orchestra and the UE String Ensemble, and is a recipient of the prestigious Evansville Philharmonic Fellowship. Fellowship students are awarded a full-time contract with the Evansville Philharmonic Orchestra based on their performance in a competitive audition before the University's string faculty and the Philharmonic's music director. As principal violist of the Chicago Youth Symphony, Jeneen has performed concerts in Germany, Switzerland, Vienna, Austria, Hungary, Japan, Italy, England, and China. Her parents are Todd and Nancy Hildwein of Riverside, Illinois. Jeneen is a student of Carol Dallinger.
